ORDER OF ABATEMENT

This cause came for judgment upon Count 1 to which the defendant entered a plea of guilty on February 12, 2013, and the judgment of the undersigned, The Honorable James E. Gates, United States Magistrate Judge, upon said Count 1, fined the defendant $200.00 with a $25.00 special assessment. It was further adjudged that the defendant be placed on probation for a period of 12 months under the general conditions as recorded in the Clerk's Office and a special condition that he pay the imposed fine and special assessment under the supervision of the Probation Office.

It now appearing to the court that the said Jessie Johnson, Jr., died on or about November 27, 2013, at which time an outstanding fine balance of $75.00 remained.

THEREFORE, the Court does find and conclude that said fine and judgment did abate with the death of said fined debtor whose estate cannot be charged therewith.

This the 4th day of February, 2014.

James E. Gates
United States Magistrate Judge
